The Journey Retreat

Guided Group Retreat

Providing a creative space to reflect on your story and discern God's presence in your life journey, particularly through difficult seasons.

Weaving together contemplative prayer with art and music elements, retreatants will be guided through a week of reflection and prayer on the themes of lament and hope.

-  20 - 24 March 2023
-  5 days / 4 nights
-  All Nations Christian College
Easneye, Ware, Herts SG12 8LX
-  £345 full board
-  Optional
Spiritual direction £35

-  Art retreat / workshop focusing on the theme of lament, with opportunity for creative expression and prayer.
-  Musical retreat and ministry through classical music led by Epiphany, with opportunity to receive individual 'sound portraits' - a unique piece of music played via improvisation over each retreatant.
-  Optional session with a trained spiritual director, helping you discern God's presence and action in your faith story.

Spiritual Direction

An individual session with someone trained to listen and offer encouragement on your faith journey. If you choose not to have this hour-long session, you have a free day in your schedule to enjoy personal time with the Lord and take walks in the beautiful woodland.

Food & Accommodation

We have single room accommodation wings set aside for retreatants. Although our rooms are not en-suite, all have wash basins. Baths and showers are located nearby. Towels and bed linen are provided. Meals are served in the college cafeteria. Special diets can be catered for - please give notice when booking.
